MATCH DAY DELEGATE

MATCH DAY DELEGATES are compulsory in youth football. Every team must supply one at every age group for every match. Referees are also being asked to report when one is not supplied.

Below you will find an extract from the Hertfordshire FA's handbook.

It shall be the responsibility of every team in Youth Football to provide a match delegate, any team failing to do so shall be liable to a fine of at least £10.00.

Role of the Match Delegate

Both clubs home and away, must nominate a responsible adult/member of their club to act as Match Delegate on the day of the game. Where possible, this should NOT be the team manager or coach, but another adult who is at the match.

The responsibility of the Match Delegate will be to:

Upon arrival at the venue, the Match Delegate from the home team will ask their opponents, who their Match Delegate is and make introductions to each other.

Together, they will then report to the match referee at least 15 minutes before the start of the game and introduce themselves to him or her.

The primary responsibility of the home team Match Delegate to look after the referee before, during and after the game until he or she leaves the ground. It would be appropriate if the home and away team delegates did the job together.

This would include, showing the referee where the changing rooms and toilets are, directing them to the correct pitch, possibly offering a drink at half time and after the game and ensuring that their fees are paid.

During the game, each delegate will be responsible for the behaviour of all club members and spectators. If the referee needs to be/she will, during a stoppage in play, approach the match delegate to assist him/her in dealing with any problems that may occur. The Match Delegate is not exempt from being reported for misconduct.

It would be good practice for the Match Delegate to ensure that the referee is able to leave the ground safely.

(Club official or match day delegate to perform this task)

The FA Respect Programme must be considered by the delegate at all times, and a report form is provided for any issues to be reported to the County Association. Which can be found on the Herts FA website.

The Hertfordshire FA is totally committed to equality and the County Association Equality Policy must be emphasised and observed at all times.
